Questions & Answers

1. Am I eligible to apply?

An applicant must be a primary member of HOCU and must be accepted and planning to enroll as a full-time student at an institution of higher learning such as a Trade School, Community College or University. Enrolling as a full-time student taking online courses also qualifies you as an applicant. You are a primary member of HOCU if you receive a statement with your name listed and have a regular share account with a minimum of $5.

2. Can my parent, grandparent, or guardian apply for me?

No one else can submit the application for an applicant. You, the applicant, must apply yourself, and be the primary member of a HOCU account.

3. How do I apply?

Go to our website at www.myhocu.com to apply online or via mail.

For mailed applications, please submit the following documentation in ONE envelope:

- 1) Scholarship Form
- 2) Official Transcript
- 3) List of Achievements, Awards, and Extra-Curricular Activities
- 4) Two Letters of Recommendation
- 5) Personal Essay

Mail to: Honolulu Federal Credit Union dba HOCU
Attn: Scholarship Committee
P.O. Box 235862
Honolulu, HI 96823-3515

HAND DELIVERED APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

4. Are there any deadlines?

Completed application must be postmarked no later than May 31, 2024, and all applicants will be notified by mail by the Scholarship Committee no later than June 30, 2024. The check will be payable and mailed to the School/University you are enrolled in for the 2024 fall semester. If you do not enroll in the 2024 fall semester, you will become ineligible for the scholarship funds.

5. Are there any marketing requirements expected of me, if I am awarded a scholarship?

Yes, the scholarship recipient will be asked to participate in a photo opportunity for HOCU, and/or could be asked to participate in a speaking engagement.

6. Can I contest the selection?

No, the HOCU Scholarship Committee selections are final.

7. What can my scholarship funds be used for?

The scholarship funds may be used for all educational expenses such as tuition, books, fees, supplies, room and board, and miscellaneous education-related expenses.

8. Is the scholarship taxable?

Please consult a tax expert for advice.

9. How will the Scholarship Committee know if a transcript is “official”?

Your academic school/university should seal the official transcript in an envelope bearing the school address and/or logo, with your name on the outside of the envelope.

10. Who can I ask to write letters of recommendation for me?

Your two letters of recommendation should be current letters from individuals, such as teachers, coaches, or advisors, who have worked with you within the last school year and can attest to your character and work or study ethics. These individuals must not be related to or living with you.

11. What should I address in my personal essay?

Focus your personal essay on the three questions below to persuade members of the Scholarship Committee to award you this scholarship. The essay should be typed, double-spaced, a minimum of 12-point text and no more than 4 pages long.

1. What are your long-term financial goals and how does HOCU help play a role in helping you achieve them?
2. What are the biggest financial faced by younger generations and how can credit unions such as HOCU help address them?
3. How do you plan to use your education to give back to your community in the future?

12. May I receive more than one scholarship from the HOCU?

Scholarship recipients are not eligible for another HOCU scholarship in the future. HOCU would like to provide this opportunity to other member-applicants.

13. If I do not receive a scholarship this year, may I apply again next year?

Yes, you are eligible to submit your application again in a subsequent year by completing the application in its entirety by the stated deadline.
