

A Message from Davin Yamada
Indirect Lending Manager

Aloha Everyone! With the arrival of summer, it's time to finally embark on that anticipated family vacation, kickstart your home renovation project, upgrade your wheels, or simply revel in the delights of sun-soaked activities. Whatever your plans may be, HOCU is here to cater to your financial needs.

Speaking of HOCU, our summer agenda includes the exciting prospect of in-person events. While virtual meetings and events have served their purpose the last few years, nothing can truly replicate the experience of being physically present with each other. The first event to start off the summer was Moiliili Summer Fest, where HOCU held a booth and supported Honolulu's largest bon dance.

Furthermore, we're thrilled to announce the return of our highly anticipated in-person seminars. These engaging and informative sessions are designed to provide valuable insights on a variety of topics such as Medicare Enrollment and Trust Planning. We will be announcing more information in our branches, website, and social media channels, so stay tuned for more details.

Together, let's make the most of this summer season and help further your journey towards a brighter future for you and your loved ones.
