

A Message from Cory D'Orazio,
Marketing and Sales Manager

Aloha Members! Summer is heating up with an extra dose of normalcy not seen since BC (before COVID) times. Roads are busier, stores are reopened, and Hawaii's vaccination efforts are helping families and friends finally reunite after a challenging year apart.

Unfortunately, our usual events are still postponed due to government health and safety guidelines. We've been working behind the scenes to offer new programs such as student loan refinancing to make your lives easier during this new normal. In anticipation of relaxed restrictions, HOCU will be launching in-person events later this year. Our first event will be the popular Shred-It Day, which is scheduled for Saturday, August 7th, at our Moiliili Branch. We're also partnering with Hawaii Foodbank both virtually and physically this summer to give back to the local community.

We appreciate your loyalty to HOCU during these challenging times and want to assure you of our commitment to best serve your financial needs. Have a great summer!
